Going concern

Following the cessation of the company's trade following the transfer of the company's assets and liabilities to Mosley Street Ventures Limited and the decision not to seek a replacement activity the directors consider it inappropriate to present these financial statements as a going concern There are however, no further adjustments to the assets and liabilities necessary

Related parties transactions

The company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Mosley Street Ventures Limited Accordingly, the company has taken advantage of the exemption in the FRSSE from disclosing transactions with members of the group

Financial instruments

Financial liabilities and equity instruments are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the entity after deducting all of its financial liabilities

Where the contractual obligations of financial instruments (including share capital) are equivalent to a similar debt instrument, those financial instruments are classed as financial liabilities Financial liabilities are presented as such in the balance sheet Finance costs and gains or losses relating to financial liabilities are included in the profit and loss account Finance costs are calculated so as to produce a constant rate of return on the outstanding liability

Where the contractual terms of share capital do not have any terms meeting the definition of a financial liability then this is classed as an equity instrument Dividends and distributions relating to equity instruments are debited direct to equity
